

Nowhere Man

1 = C

John Lennon and Paul McCartney

The image displays a musical score for the song "Nowhere Man" by The Beatles, specifically the guitar and bass parts. The score is organized into six systems, each containing a guitar staff (top) and a bass staff (bottom). The guitar staff uses a six-string fretboard with blue rectangular blocks representing fretted notes and horizontal lines for ties. The bass staff uses a four-string fretboard with similar notation. Chord diagrams are placed above the guitar staff, and fingering numbers (1-4) are placed below the bass staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#), indicated by "1 = C" at the top left. The score includes various musical notations such as accidentals (sharps, flats, naturals), accidentals with a diamond symbol (e.g., ♯), and a repeat sign. The final system shows a double bar line followed by a bracketed section of the bass staff, indicating a solo or a specific technique.
