

For He's A Jolly Good Fellow

1 = C

Traditional

The image displays a musical score for the song "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow" in C major. It compares two versions: a simplified one (left) and a traditional one (right). The score is organized into five systems, each containing four staves. The simplified version uses only the numbers 1 through 6 for notes and fingerings, while the traditional version includes 7 and 8. Fingerings are indicated by numbers inside blue boxes. Bar lines are placed at the end of each staff and at the end of each system.
